Very Important Notes

- 1. When choosing music for your wedding, nearly all of these pieces (and others) are interchangeable at the various points where you can have music. Discuss your favourites with us.
- 2. There is a time period after the mass has finished when the couple sign the register and some photographs are taken. Any appropriate music, including secular songs, can be inserted at this time. Perhaps you have a favourite song which can be sung here. However, bear in mind that the church is usually quite noisy during this time!
